Re: Morton H. Halperin vs. C.I.A.
Civil Action No. 77-1859
December 19, 1978
Pages 1 thru 78 plus Exhibits 1 & 2

Dear Mr. Blake:

It is my understanding that you wish to read your deposition taken in the above-entitled matter.

The deposition will be available for your signature between the hours of nine a.m. and five p.m., Monday thru Friday, at 320 Massachusetts Avenue, N.E., Washington, D.C.

The Rules require that a Notary Public be present at the time you read and sign your deposition. Therefore, please call 546-6666 and let me know the date and time convenient for you to come in. It is important that I know in advance when you will be present in order that a Notary Public can be present.

All depositions are filed with or without signature 30 days after completion.

Very truly yours,

Harry N. Grindstaff
